

TRAVEL BACK IN TIME

WITH FAMILY-FRIENDLY ACTIVITIES THAT CELEBRATE
INLAND NORTHWEST ARCHAEOLOGY,
HISTORIC PRESERVATION AND COLUMBIA PLATEAU CULTURAL HERITAGE!

- Conduct an archaeological survey and a mock excavation
 - Identify historic bottles, cans and artifacts
 - Learn how to make a tool through flintknapping
 - Toss an atl-atl (spear)
 - Practice zooarchaeology by studying animal bones
 - Make your own "rock" art
 - Hear stories of plateau life and history tales told for generations from traditional Native American storytellers
 - Take a walking tour of historic buildings
- AND MUCH MORE!

SATURDAY, OCT. 6, 2018, 10 A.M. - 3 P.M.
NORTHWEST MUSEUM OF ARTS AND CULTURE CAMPUS
— FREE! —

Visit ewu.edu/archaeologyday for more information.

SPONSORED BY

Association for Washington Archaeology | Eastern Washington University
Archaeological and Historical Services, EWU | Colville National Forest
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service | Kalispel Tribe of Indians
Colville Confederated Tribes | Spokane Tribe of Indians
Northwest Museum of Arts & Culture