PROFESSIONAL PROFILE (or Skills, or Qualifications, or Accomplishments)

Here is one way to write this section. Briefly introduce yourself as a professional and include your professional objective and interest in a line or two. For example, "Occupational Therapist, dedicated and culturally competent, seeks entry-level opportunities in client-centered, team-driven environments."

EDUCATION (You may place this here, or after your experience sections)

Type of degree in major | Month Year

Eastern Washington University, Cheney, WA

Place your most recent degree (completed or in progress) first. Then work backward through time. Put GPA here only if it's exceptional (3.5+). You could put your honors designation instead: Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, or Summa Cum Laude. You may also list minors, academic focus, relevant coursework, academic awards, achievements, and certifications here.

Previous Degrees | Month Year

Institution, City, State

You do not have to list an A.A. if you have a Bachelor's degree, unless you had specialized coursework relevant to the job. You should list Bachelor's degrees if you have a Master degree (and so on). Do not list high school.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE (You may place this section before or after education)

Position/Job Title | Month Year

Organization, City, ST

- (Example) Designed departmental newsletter that had a circulation of 500 supervisors and managers.
- Format like above (action word, did/doing, learned/learning, results, accomplishments). 3-5 bullets are ideal, one or two lines at most.
- Reverse chronological order (most recent first).

Position/Job Title | Month Year

- It's good to put relevant volunteer and leadership roles in your experience section.
- Also good: student teaching and relevant unpaid internships.
- You don't have to put everything, just the most relevant jobs.
- Most new graduates will have three to four positions in the Relevant Experience area.
