A note regarding Washington State's Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML): EWU allows Washington State faculty members to use their paid time off (sick and/or short-term disability) to supplement the payments they receive from PFML. These are known as supplemental benefits. Faculty members who designate leave as supplemental will receive their full sick and/or short - term disability pay in addition to any PFML wage replacement benefit received. Please inform Benefits immediately if you plan on applying for PFML or if you are approved for PFML leave so that arrangements can be made for supplemental benefits.
